ok thanks. who is going down for the HGAC?

▼ Garyg Miller---08/03/2011 09:39:04 AM---Donn, either date would work for me, but 8/17 would be better since HGAC is that day too. Thanks.

I would prefer the earlier timeframe also as Donn suggests - helps in planning for the CEI meeting also and my conflict. But I hear what you are saying about Aug. 17 - Carlos - the next one is important in terms of discussing and preparing for the CEI meetings.

Looks like it is challenging to find one that works for everyone so let's keep Aug. 17 and I will see what I can do..

I suggest the week after as a better timeframe. The EPA site team also needs to discuss prospective dates for the next community meeting.

I wanted to coordinate with you all on the next CAC meeting. We had not finalized the date for it. I am not available Aug. 17. But the week before or after would work for me. Please let me know and I can send out a save the date. The HGAC Dioxin meeting is Aug. 17.

I also had discussed ideas for the next community engagement meeting tentatively on September 8th and will follow up in an email.

I am also attaching a draft agenda per discussion with Gary to start early. Let me know any changes/comments.

I will be out at a conference from Wed. to Friday.

Also, did you know Texans Together had a meeting last Thursday? I heard about it late that day. It was at Baytown Council Chambers.
